Genoa, September 22.

ON the 18th came to an Anchor in this Port four French Gallies, under the Command of the Chevalier de Langeron, which 'tis said are to proceed to Leghorne as soon as the Weather will permit; and they are extraordinarily manned, having double the Number of Marines usual; 'tis not known what the Design of their Voyage is, but 'tis said they are to be followed by 4 other Gallies. 'Tis advised from Tripoli, that Admiral Baker with a Squadron of 5 British Men of War arrived there on the 13th of July, and had renewed the Peace in the Name of the King of Great-Britain, including His Majesty's Subjects on the Island of Minorca.

Stockholm, Aug. 7. On Sunday the 5th Instant an Express arrived here from Oregrunds, a small Sea-Port about 30 Leagues to the Northward of this Place, with an Account that on Friday last about 10 a Clock at Night, 6 or 7 small Muscovite Gallies came unperceived into that Road from Aland, and landed immediately about 150 Men, who seized about 20 Men of the Town, and after an Hour's stay retired, without doing any other Injury to the Inhabitants, who are most of them Fishermen, and serve for Pilots in the Bothnick Gulph; from which 'tis apprehended, that the Design of the Muscovites in carrying off those People, is to make use of them as Pilots in their intended Descent from Finland. This Attempt causes a great Consternation all along the Coast, so that many Families have already abandoned their Dwellings, and are removing up into the Country. Upon this News General Taube, who commands the Army in these Parts, dispatched an Express to the King, to desire that the Regiments of Infantry of Upland, Helsingland and Buckler's, which his Majesty lately directed to march from the Northward to Schonon, and are now advanced into this Neighbourhood, might be left here. All the Finnish Troops which retired out of that Dutchy about two Years ago, and have since been quartered in Helsingland, and are yet computed at about 3000 Horse and 2500 Foot, came last Week into Upland the Province adjoining to this City; so that all the three Provinces on this side the Bothnick Gulph, as far as the Town of Gasse, are now entirely destitute of Troops. There is yet no Camp formed in this Neighbourhood for the Defence of this City; nor hath the King hitherto declared what Regiments shall continue hereabouts. But if the three abovenamed pursue their March to Schonon, there will then be remaining in these Parts only about 1200 Horse and 2500 Foot, besides the Finlanders. The Letters from Schonon say, that by the Middle of this Month the Army in that Province will amount to 10000 Horse and 8000 Foot, besides the Garrisons; and there are still on the march thither about 4000 Foot and 1500 Horse. By the Advices from Carlscrona the Swedish Fleet is taking in 6 Weeks Provisions more; and 'tis said it will put to Sea again by the Middle of this Month; though its Strength is still only 16 Ships of the Line, and 4 Frigates.

Copenhagen, Oct. 3. The Preparations for the intended Descent on Schonon having been protracted several Weeks beyond the Time proposed when that Project was first formed and agreed on; by which Means not only the Season is too far advanced, but the Swedes have drawn together a considerable Army in Schonon, secured all the Posts, and removed all the Forrage and Provisions from the open Country into the strong Towns; and there not being sufficient Magazines provided here, for supplying such a Number of Forces in an Enemy's Country and in the Winter, as were designed, and necessarily must have been transported from hence; it has been resolved after mature Deliberation, to defer that Enterprize to a more proper Season. In the mean while the Muscovite Troops are all embarked here, in order to be carried to Winter Quarters; but in what Parts they are all to be disposed, is not yet intirely settled. Frequent Conferences are held between the Danish and Russian Ministers. Sir John Norris with the British and Dutch Squadrons, will in a little Time go up the Baltick, to secure the Return of the Trade. The Czar has intimated that he designs to go to Holland, proposing to have an Interview with the King of Great-Britain in his Way thither.

Hanover, Oct. 6. The King designs to set out for Goor on the 10th Instant; which Day is also fixed for the Departure of the Queen of Prussia to return to Berlin. The freshest Letters from Warsaw, which are of the 25th of September, do not bring any thing certain as to Peace or War in that Kingdom: The Confederates had again sent Deputies to the King, and the Conferences were to be renewed on the 26th; but at the same Time General Bosen with 6000 Saxons was marching with all Expedition, in order to attack M. Gniodowski at Thorn. Mr. Whitworth sets out on the 12th Instant to return to the Court of Berlin.

Brussels, Oct. 5. The 1st Instant being the Emperor's Birth-day, the same was celebrated here with the usual Ceremonies, and by a triple Discharge of the Cannon and small Arms of the Garrison both at Noon and at Night: In the Absence of Count Kinigslegg the Imperial Minister, who has been for some Days past in the Country, Count Vehlen, Commander in chief of the Troops, attended by a great Number of Officers, assisted at the solemn Service performed in the Cathedral Church on that Occasion. One of the Marquess de Prié's Secretaries arrived here Yesterday: He brought his Imperial Majesty's Instructions to Count Kinigslegg for his Embassy to the Court of France; and his Excellency's Equipage is preparing, in order to his setting out immediately after the Marquess de Prié's Arrival at this Place. Letters from Ghent advise, that two of the Deputies of Flanders set out from that Place on the 2d Instant for the Hague, viz. M. Triest d'Aughem, first Secretary of that Town, and M. Cordonnier one of the Pensionaries of Bruges: 'Tis said that Baron Pottelsberg de Boulancy is deputed in behalf of the Clergy; but his Imperial Majesty's Letter to the States of Flanders, authorizing them to send only two Deputies to the Hague, Hague, to instruct his Minister in their pretended Grievances, 'tis thought the Baron will not be admitted to go thither on that Occasion. The Lord Cadogan who had been detained here some Days by a Strain in his Ankle, of which he is not yet perfectly recovered, set out Yesterday Morning from hence for the Hague.

Hague, Oct. 9. On the 3d Instant arrived here the Marquess de Prié, who in his Passage through Boisseluduc was entertained by Count Tilly General of the Troops of this State and Governour of that Place. On the 5th, the Marquess de Beretti Landi, Ambassadour of Spain, arrived here. On the 6th arrived the Lord Cadogan, Ambassadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the King of Great-Britain: And as the Bishop of Antwerp and the other Deputies of Flanders and Brabant are come hither, 'tis presumed the Conferences will soon be opened, for adjusting amicably the Difficulties which have hitherto prevented the Execution of some Articles of the Treaty of Barrier. The same Day the Lord Cadogan came hither, he notified his Arrival to M. Burmania, President for the Week of the Assembly of the States-General, who on the 7th made his Lordship a Visit and complimented him on the Part of their High Mightinesses. That Day likewise his Lordship received Visits from the Marquess de Prié, Baron Heems, and the other Ministers residing here. The same Day M. Burmania went to compliment the Marquess de Beretti Landi, in the Name of the States, on his Arrival here. M. Geldermalsen and Baron Swartsebourg are returned from Flanders, whither they went by a Deputation from the States to view the Magazines and Fortifications of that Frontier; and have made their Report to the Council of State. The States of the Province of Holland are to assemble on the 14th of this Month. 'Tis said an Assembly of Persons deputed extraordinarily by the States of each Province, will be held on the 15th Instant.
